Dear Sir,

I understand that there are in your office a good collection of works on Oriental Philosophy, Religion and also a set of "Sacred Books of the East". In view of the abolition of the office that has been ordered from 1st August 1922, I make bold to approach Government with a request that the collection of books in your office may kindly be lent to the Mythic Society for being incorporated with their Library on the same terms as the valuable collection of books transferred to us from the Secretariat Library sometime ago. I need hardly add that we shall take very good care of the books and also make it available for all Government officers and for scholars - - - - interested in the study of Oriental Philosophy and religions and make over the collection to the Government if, at any time, our activities cease.

I hope that Government with their wonted generosity to our Society will graciously consider this request favourably.
